

The Road to Smarter Contracting

Technologies that are Transforming Contract Management

Smart Authoring Tools

Simplify the contract creation process and boost contract reviews with workflows

Blockchain

Seamlessly deploy innovative contract management solutions based on permissioned, standards-based blockchains

Reporting & Analytics-Power BI

To quickly analyze data visually in an efficient manner

Advanced Search Capabilities

Help you find contract records, documents, or counterparties with a simple keyword

Cloud Platforms

Cost-effective approach to scaling up as well as scaling out

Integration With ERP & CRM Systems

Minimize the number of communication failures and human

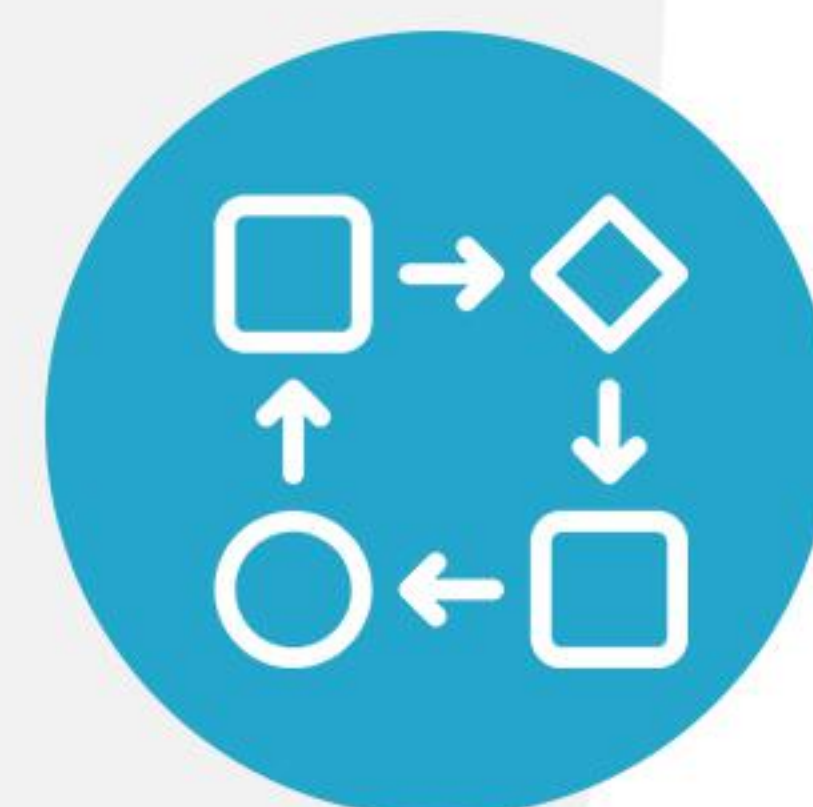

Artificial Intelligence

Enables deeper insights into key contract metrics

Automated Contract Workflow

Automatic contract workflows so that your in-house legal team doesn't have to manually move contracts

Why eContracts?

eContracts is an intelligent cloud-based Contract Management software developed on the Azure cloud platform. It supports end-to-end contract lifecycle process automation and provides deep, seamless integration with the Office 365 product suite.